

MFCAE 2016

It is our great pleasure to deliver to you the announcement that MFCAE 2016 will be held in Jeju Island, Korea on August 18th to 19th, 2016. MFCAE 2016 covering a wide range of innovative metal forging technologies consists of invited expert lectures, user presentations, and an introduction to new and enhanced functions in AFDEX. We strongly recommend you to participate into this cutting-edge technical event by sharing your experiences gotten during the various forging processes by means of oral presentations and/or poster. MFRC heartedly welcomes you to the event, as many forge researchers and technicians from abroad are expected to be present, surely providing you with a solid platform on which you may successfully build up global human network and extend it much further.

Thank you in advance for your deep interest in MFCAE 2016.
